

2023 Sunday Morning Series

The victory of the Allied forces in North Africa signaled a turning point in the early stages of World War II. After this crucial campaign, Winston Churchill made one of his most memorable statements: “This is not the end. This is not the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning.” Like every other aspect and detail of Jesus’ life and ministry, the events approaching His death were foreordained by the Father, in order to accomplish the divine plan of redemption. The unfolding of this plan shows that death and the grave are not the end. They are the beginning of life eternal from the end of Christ’s life through His resurrection from the dead.
